Vusi ThembeKwayo's Global Tour Sets New Records – A Landmark Year of Firsts, Full Houses, and History-Making Moments

July 2025

Vusi ThembeKwayo's recent global tour has been a resounding success, marked by sold-out arenas and standing ovations that have cemented his position as Africa's most influential business voice on the world stage. "This tour has been nothing short of sold-out arenas and standing ovations; a back-to-back run of full rooms, global stages, and defining moments," ThembeKwayo stated.

MAJOR WINS FROM THE ROAD

First African Mainstage Keynote at Good Soil Forum – Dallas, June 12–14, 2025

Vusi made history by becoming the first African featured speaker on the main stage of the renowned Good Soil Forum. This world-class conference converges leading entrepreneurs, investors, and visionaries from around the globe. He delivered a keynote centered on economic empowerment, founder-driven innovation, and closing cultural opportunity gaps. The event hosted over 1,500 attendees and featured a $500,000 seed capital pitch competition for high-potential entrepreneurs.

Shared Stage with Oprah Winfrey & Bishop T.D. Jakes

At the Good Soil Forum, Vusi joined global icons Oprah Winfrey and Bishop T.D. Jakes in a packed AT&T Performing Arts Center, delivering a powerful fireside session that resonated widely across social media.

Successful Tour of the U.S.: 4 States, 8 Cities, Prestigious Engagements

From Dallas through Atlanta, New York, and Boston, Vusi delivered impactful keynote sessions across corporate forums, universities, and private leadership retreats. A highlight included engagements at prestigious institutions like Oxford University, where Dr. Umar Johnson, secured a resounding victory at the historic Oxford Union debate on Thursday, May 29, 2025. Arguing for the motion, "The House Believes Africa must evict its colonial masters,". The duo won by a sweeping 273 votes to 28.

EMY Africa Event in Ghana

During a break in his U.S. tour, Vusi returned to West Africa for the EMY Africa Event in Ghana. There, he delivered an impactful masterclass on business leadership for entrepreneurs focused on building scalable, investment-ready African businesses rooted in authenticity and impact.
